

Pappas Telecasting Companies' 'donation' of $325,000 in airtime to Republican candidates in certain areas is yet another example of a powerful media group abusing its privileged access to the public airwaves.

Doesn't the Public have an obligation to demand fairness on the public airwaves?

And, YOU are the organization that gives the Public a voice.

Please represent us, the Average American, and prohibit large conglomerates from manipulating the airwaves to their own political end.

Regardless of which party they're supporting, it's not fair.

Pappas uses the public airwaves free of charge and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Pappas' actions are legally questionable and cast doubt on whether Pappas truly intends to serve the public interest.

Thank you-
